

Financial Aid & Scholarship Resources As of March 1, 2024

Note: This is not a comprehensive listing of all college scholarship resources available, rather known scholarship resources to assist 2024 seniors interested in applying for scholarships. Please note that these resources will change as scholarship deadlines pass. Students are therefore encouraged to apply prior to deadlines noted.

Students are encouraged to check with their high school counselor for other scholarship opportunities continuously.

Tips for students:

1. Do not wait until the final deadline to start the process. Start this process immediately.
2. Allocate time weekly to apply for scholarships and college admission.
3. Allocate enough time to apply for scholarships and college admission (e.g. 1-2 hours).
4. Be sure to document deadlines and requirements for admission (if applicable) and all scholarships that you are applying for.
5. Be sure to have your essay draft ready, in the event that college and/or scholarship applications require essays.
 - a. Have someone (parent, teacher, or another adult) proofread your essay for grammatical errors, content, etc.
6. Be sure to have letters of recommendations ready from at least 1-2 teachers and 1 coach/mentor (if you've had them), in case they are needed for admissions or scholarship applications.
7. Seek assistance immediately if you are unsure of what needs to be done.
 - a. Ask questions when needed to ensure that you understand.
8. Keep a running list of all college and scholarship applications submitted (example: name of the school or scholarship, date applied, date decision was received, etc.) Here is a Template for you.
